

POCKETSMART AI

Proposed Solution

- PocketSmart AI provides a central dashboard for personal expense management.
- Users record transactions and organize them into categories.
- The application summarizes recorded data and supports budget monitoring.
- An AI assistant can turn relevant spending context and user questions into plain-language insights.
- Recommendations are informational, not guaranteed financial outcomes; users remain responsible for decisions.